

SGEI Accessibility

Services available to staff:

- Digitizing lessons to make them usable for those who use assistive technologies
 - Helping provide instructional and assessment strategies that support Universal Design for Learning and Differentiated Instruction
 - Referring services to outside agencies like physiotherapists, occupational therapists, psychologists, etc.
 - Training staff on topics like crisis prevention intervention, human rights, disabilities, differentiated instruction, special education, accessibility compliance, Universal Design, use of assistive technologies, best practices for classroom instruction, and more.
-

Accessibility staff

Rainy Lake Campus:

Kelly Forbes, Accessibility Leader
kellyf@7generations.org
(807) 274-2796 x 1205

Kenora Campus:

Terri Forster, Accessibility Coordinator
terrif@7generations.org
(807) 468-3096 x 3233